Here is a 3 hour
workshop that will help you to make those meetings with your boss a much more mutually rewarding experience

Ever bounced into your boss' office to eagerly report on project progress, only to be met with a quizzical stare? Ever been stopped mid-sentence by a boss who has no idea what you are talking about? Ever been asked to cut to the chase when you thought you were actually giving a brief summary? Do you feel that at times, your boss isn't really interested in what you have to say? Feel a bit anxious when you go into a meeting with your boss?

Workshop Objectives

Over 3 hours, you will:

- Understand the broader context in which your boss works and what is important to them as a leader and manager.
- Better understand how to tap into your boss' skills and expertise to enhance each others' roles, to build trust, respect and capability.
- Identify strategies to ensure that you and your boss are on the same page in update meetings and that you are more clear about what to do when you get back to your desk.
- Build confidence and mutual respect in presenting information to your busy boss to elicit a considered, timely and appropriate response.

Your Facilitator
